Handwriting practice on ruled paper. The first row shows the letter 'W' written twice, with blue arrows indicating the direction of each stroke. The second row shows the letter 'U' written twice, also with blue arrows indicating the direction of each stroke.

A handwriting practice line featuring two examples of the lowercase letter 'v' written in cursive script. The first 'v' is written with a single continuous stroke, while the second 'v' includes a small crossbar at the top. Blue dashed lines provide a guide for the letter's height and placement.
